

Westminster Abbey

Saturday 18th November 2006, 7pm

Evening prayer and vigil (till 9 pm) around the cross

- with Archbishop Rowan Williams, Cardinal Cormac Murphy-O'Connor and brother Alois, prior of the Taizé Community.
- 6.15 pm The Abbey will open for a song practice before the evening prayer.
- 4.00 pm St Margaret's Church, Westminster (next to the Abbey): song practice for those who want to sing in the "choir".
- also at 4.00 pm, workshops on biblical and social themes:
 - ✦ 'Come, follow me!' —but what is it that God expects of us? (Biblical reflection with a brother of the Community) Venue: Westminster Cathedral Hall, Ambrosden Avenue, SW1
 - ✦ Living and working with people of other faiths —what can we share, how can we become friends? Venue: Methodist Central Hall (Aldersgate Room) —opposite the Abbey
 - ✦ Including those on the margins of society —what can we do? (Short presentations followed by sharing of experiences) Venue: St Matthew's Church, Great Peter St., SW1

If any venue becomes full then some participants will be redirected to another workshop or to the song practice.

Further details: www.taize.fr/Westminster